

Latin III
Weekend HW

Nomen: _____

Using your notes on ablative of time/space, translate the following sentences and identify which type of ablatives are being used.

1. ubi Quintus Flaccusque domo discesserunt, Scintilla Horatiaque Venusiae manebant.

Translation:

–domo is an ablative of                      separation                      place where                      time when

2. cotidie primā luce diei surgebant diuque in agro laborabant.

Translation:

–primā luce is an ablative of                      separation                      place where                      time when

–agro is an ablative of                      separation                      place where                      time when

3. Scintilla raro (“rarely”) curīs libera erat sed numquam spem deposuit.

Translation:

–curīs is an ablative of                      separation                      place where                      time when

4. paucīs post diebus ab agro redierat et in casā quiescebat cum tabellarius
("postman") epistolam ei tradidit.

Translation:

–paucīs post diebus is an ablative of    separation    place where    time when

–agro is an ablative of    separation    place where    time when

–casā is an ablative of    separation    place where    time when

5. Flaccus enim tandem epistolam Romā miserat. Romam cum filio sine casu advenerat.

Translation:

–Romā is an ablative of    separation    place where    time when

6. haec epistola Scintillam magnā anxietate liberavit.

Translation:

–magnā anxietate is an ablative of    separatio    place where    time when